🏠🌟 Imagine a life spent working hard, only to find yourself retiring in your 60s or 70s, facing the prospect of homelessness. This harsh reality is increasingly common among seniors in British Columbia, as revealed in a comprehensive 66-page report titled 'Aging in Uncertainty: The Growing Housing Crisis for BC Seniors.'

This report, jointly released on National Housing Day by United Way British Columbia and a coalition of BC Non-Profit community-based seniors' organizations, spotlights the critical issue of seniors struggling to secure affordable housing in the face of soaring living costs, stagnant government retirement incomes, and a shortage of affordable housing.
